

Jolea Jensen

Missionary to the Philippines

Dear Family and Friends:

June 2009

“For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure,” Phil. 2:13. I have been reading the book of Acts lately, and God impressed upon me the simple message of the first three words of Acts 19:11, “And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul.” As I move into a second year of deputation, I continue to see God working in and through me for His glory. I continue praying for Him to direct me to the churches He has chosen for me to present my ministry at.

I have been home with my family in New York for much of April and May. This time at home allowed me to contact new churches and pastors for meetings. I traveled on weekends to visit churches in New England, New Jersey, and New York. The Lord blessed each meeting, and I greatly enjoyed fellowshiping with like-minded believers.

One special project I am working on is collecting music books to take back to the Philippines with me. I am looking for both classical and sacred music for piano or voice. In October 2008 I visited a college library in northern Pennsylvania. There was a book sale at the time, and I asked the librarian if she might have some music books. She did have a set of music education curricula (complete from K-8th grade), but it was not off the shelves yet. She contacted me this month to tell me the books are available now. I asked for the price, and she told me she was giving them to me free of charge! Praise the Lord for how He provides!

Please pray for the following requests:

1. Safety as I drive long distances alone.
2. Wisdom as I contact new churches for meetings.
3. Financial support. My support level is currently at 44%.
4. Opportunities to witness
5. Salvation: Leah, Sarah, Marilou, Christina, Mrs. Loyola, Catherina Bona, Marilyn
6. Spiritual growth/Church attendance: Angelita Hipolito, Marilyn Dayao
7. Ruth Potter: financial support for a second year teaching at BJMBC.
8. Homeschool teacher for missionary kids.

In the service of the King,
