

Jolea Jensen

Missionary to the Philippines

Dear Family and Friends:

May 2009

“This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses,” Acts. 2:32. I recently took part in a missions conference in Boston, Massachusetts. I enjoyed not only sharing my ministry but also hearing how God is using others in their respective fields of service. The messages from God’s Word burdened me more for lost souls who are dying and going to Hell today. I continue seeking opportunities to witness, although some people decidedly reject the tracts I try to give them. Others, such as some Filipino ladies I met in Boston, willingly take what I offer. Please continue to pray that the Lord would grant me opportunities to share His Word with others.

I will be at home with my family in New York State for the majority of this month. I plan to spend time contacting new churches and pastors, seeking to complete my deputation schedule for the rest of this year. Please pray for God’s guidance as I make these contacts.

I praise the Lord that another church recently voted to take me on for support. This raises my support level to 44%. It is exciting to see the Lord provide for my soon return to the mission field.

Please pray for the following requests:

1. Safety as I drive long distances alone.
2. Wisdom as I contact new churches for meetings.
3. Financial support. My support level is currently at 44%.
4. Opportunities to witness
5. Salvation: Leah, Sarah, Marilou, Christina, Mrs. Loyola, Catherina Bona, Marilyn
6. Spiritual growth/Church attendance: Angelita Hipolito, Marilyn Dayao
7. Ruth Potter: financial support for a second year teaching at BJMBC.
8. Homeschool teacher for missionary kids.
